Matchup Preview

The two teams first met on October 6 in Fort Lauderdale for a rainy, hard-fought home match. The thriller was decided by a rocket of a shot in the 82nd minute, securing a gritty three points for FTL UTD. Their second meeting came just three weeks later on October 27 in Brooklyn. Felicia Knox netted her first goal of the season, but Fort Lauderdale fell 1–3 on the road. The third clash took place on March 15, again in Brooklyn. Sh’Nia Gordon recorded a brace, leading Fort Lauderdale United to a 2–0 win. The victory briefly put FTL UTD alone at the top of the USL Super League standings.

Coming off its second loss in the last four matches, FTL UTD is eager to return to the win column against a familiar foe – one it has already defeated twice this season. The team’s high-powered attack is led by the league’s most prolific duo: Addie McCain (10G) and Jasmine Hamid (9G), who have combined for 19 goals – the most by any pairing in the Sup. Supporting the front line are Kiara Locklear (4G, 4A) and Sh’Nia Gordon (3G, 2A), helping Fort Lauderdale rank 4th in the league with 30 goals scored. Brooklyn FC enters the weekend winless in its last 11 matches (6 losses, 5 draws), managing just 5 goals while conceding 22 during that stretch. Despite the skid, Brooklyn features a trio of capable scorers: Mackenzie George and Jessica Garziano have each tallied 4 goals, while Luana Grabias leads the squad with 5.
