Matchup Preview

Fort Lauderdale United opened its season with a thriller last Saturday evening and enters this weekend's clash carrying momentum. The new-look squad showed energy from top to bottom, with the revamped back line — anchored by returner Laurel Ansbrow, captain Sh'nia Gordon in her new role at right back after previously playing as a winger, and newcomers Allie George and Ella Simpson — bringing fresh swagger and stability. On the attack, Jasmine Hamid, Kiara Locklear and Kelli Van Treeck set the tone with relentless effort and intensity, while the midfield trio of Darya Rajaei, Taylor Smith and Kat González controlled the game through composure and distribution. The new-look Fort Lauderdale United squad will look to carry its strong form into a meeting with a team that hasn't seen the field yet.

The only team of nine to not debut last week, Carolina Ascent FC will open its 2025/26 campaign on Saturday evening. No club was more successful during the 2024/25 regular season, with Carolina claiming the inaugural Players' Shield as the league's top point-earner over 28 matches. Their run ended in the Semifinal against Fort Lauderdale, and now their new season begins at Beyond Bancard Field. The defending Shield winners enter with a reshaped roster featuring 10 new players and face an immediate challenge against a Fort Lauderdale side already in rhythm.
