Matchup Preview

Fort Lauderdale United FC enters Saturday's matchup riding momentum from a strong, unbeaten start that includes an impressive road win at Spokane. The club leads the league in goals scored (6), with forward Kiara Locklear and defender Ella Simpson each finding the net twice. In midfield, new addition Stella Nyamekye impressed in her starting debut alongside the creative Kat González and the energetic Kelli Van Treeck, though every-match starter Taylor Smith will miss this week's game after receiving a red card last weekend. In goal, goalkeeper Bella Hara – who became the second-youngest player in Super League history to record a clean sheet – ranks second in the league with 10 saves and anchors the defense. With Fort Lauderdale catching fire, the club now welcomes the league's top-ranked squad.

Dallas Trinity FC enters Saturday atop the Super League standings as the league's only perfect team. The club returns four All-League selections from last season, led by first-team defender H. Brooks and forward A. Thornton, along with second-team defender H. Davison and forward C. Ubogagu. Dallas has spread its scoring, with four different players finding the net, and is anchored by goalkeeper R. Foster, who has two clean sheets, ranks second in saves (10), and has allowed just one goal. Saturday's matchup pits Fort Lauderdale's league-leading attack against Dallas's stingy back line in a clash of strengths.
