Matchup Preview

Fort Lauderdale United enters Friday's matchup coming off a pair of losses to two top-four teams, but the club delivered a strong performance in Saturday's Florida Derby before a 63rd-minute delay. The dynamic attack is led by Sh'nia Gordon, one of just 13 players in the league to record both a goal and an assist this season, alongside the electric trio of Kiara Locklear, Farrah Walters and Grace Cutler. The middle of the park is controlled by All-League Second Team honoree Kelli Van Treeck and Nicole Vernis, while captain Haley Thomas anchors the back line. Defenders Ella Simpson and Kelsey Oyler have enjoyed strong starts to the campaign, with Simpson tied for the league lead in clearances (26) and Oyler leading the league in tackles won (12).

Dallas Trinity FC enters Friday's meeting on a hot streak, winning consecutive matches after going winless through its first three matches of the season. The club is led by former Fort Lauderdale forward Jasmine Hamid, who ranks second in the league with three goals, while Onyeka Gamero and Seven Castain have each recorded two goals. Camryn Lancaster is tied for the league lead with two assists, while Team of the Month honoree Sofia Cedeno anchors the midfield. With Fort Lauderdale looking to slow down an in-form Dallas squad, Friday's meeting promises to be an intense matchup.
